September 2011

Dear Curlers,

We are excited to offer you the second edition of the Curling Resource Guide through our partnership with the Canadian Expat Network. This guide contains a listing of U.S. curling clubs, as many bonspiels as we knew about at press time, feature articles, rules, photos and much more. This is the second year of this new venture, and we hope that you'll enjoy the changes we've made from our inaugural edition.

Curling continues to grow worldwide as fans become curlers. In the U.S. alone, curling has grown about 53 percent since the 2001-02 season. We now count 165 curling clubs, with many more in the planning stages. Curling clubs can now be found in 38 of 50 U.S. states so bonspiel opportunities are endless.

The guide is in electronic format, which makes it easy for you to share, thumb through and continue to reference all season long. There are advertising opportunities available within the guide so please consider these next season as you look for additional ways to spread the word about your event.

Last year's contest to win tickets to the Continental Cup was very popular so once again we're inviting you to take a look at the Resource Guide and get yourself entered to win two tickets to the 2012 Continental Cup of Curling in Langley, British Columbia. The Continental Cup continues to be a great partnership with the U.S. and Canadian athletes joining forces to be Team North America and take on Team World. Please enter today, as the contest ends Dec. 1.

Sincerely,

Rick Patzke
Chief Operating Officer

Win Ticket Package for Two to the Continental Cup in Langley, BC

USA Curling and the Canadian Expat Network are pleased to announce a Giveaway for a ticket package for two to the 2012 World Financial Group Continental Cup.

The unique international curling competition, featuring Team North America versus Team World, will take place from 11-15 January 2012 at the Langley Events Centre in Langley, BC.

Team World v Team North America. Twelve teams in total: three men's and three women's teams for both Team World and Team North America. This is a four-day event featuring regular Team games, Mixed Doubles, Singles, Mixed Skins and Skins games. Points are awarded for wins or ties in each discipline. The first team to reach 201 points is declared the winner.

The 2012 event will mark the eighth edition of the 'Cup', which began in 2002 in Regina and has been compared to golf's Ryder Cup. Currently, Team North America and Team World are tied at three wins each.

THE GROWTH OF USA CURLING CLUBS

The past decade for the sport of curling has been a period of significant growth in the United States. With 149 of 165 clubs reporting membership rosters so far in 2011, USA Curling reports close to a 19 percent increase in total membership in the past year. Even better, since the 2001-02 season, USA Curling's membership has grown 53 percent from 10,805 to 16,512!

The excitement of the 2010 Olympic Winter Games coupled with TV exposure on NBC's networks has created a significant jump in membership across the U.S., according to figures tabulated by Sandy Robinson, USA Curling's controller and numbers maven.

Fifteen new clubs became members in the past year – a 9 percent increase – with the Grand National region accounting for eight new clubs. Of the 149 clubs reporting, 105 reported a membership increase, equating to more than 70 percent. The sport has now found a home in 38 of 50 U.S. states.

It has become a common theme: Olympic coverage of curling creates curling craze across the U.S. As NBC embraced curling on its networks and aired every draw of action from the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver, the sport once again was a winner in the hearts of newfound fans eager to pick up a broom and throw a stone.

The problem for some, however, is finding a place to curl when no club even exists in your entire state. The eager folks in Atlanta, embraced that challenge. They went to Facebook and created an interest group and then traveled to Knoxville, Tenn., and held a curling camp. Even more excited now, they went back home and formally started a club, got accepted by the Grand National region and became USA Curling members.

Same goes for the folks in Florida, who wanted curling to return to the Sunshine State. After the 2002 Olympic Games, Florida enjoyed a brief period of curling but the club in Sarasota soon dissolved. The excitement continued after the Vancouver Olympics and Coral Springs, Fla., gave curling a new home. It helps that many Canadians have flown the coop to the warmer south to help the sport once again be present. The newly-formed Panthers Curling Club calls the Saveology Iceplex.

Did you know that the beautiful state of North Carolina now boasts three curling clubs? That's right, in addition to the Triangle Curling Club in Raleigh, which has been around since 1995, there are now clubs in the Charlotte area (Charlotte Centre Curling Club) and Wilmington (Coastal Carolina Curling Club). Jump the border and you'll find South Carolina's lone curling club – the Palmetto Curling Club in Taylors, just outside of Greenville. Who said curling was just a northern sport?

I don't know about you, but I am still dreaming of the Honolulu Curling Club. Who wants to volunteer to do some scoping out of the ice facilities? Yeah, me too...

Good curling,

Terry Kolesar
Director of Communications

Capital One Rocks & Rings Program Sliding Closer To The U.S. Market

Curling is currently one of the fastest growing Olympic sports around. Curling Clubs and rinks are popping up all over the United States and quickly. Rock Solid Productions and the Rocks & Rings program are looking to be in schools across America soon. The Capital One Rocks & Rings program is a unique in-classroom version of Curling.

The great thing about learning this social, interactive sport is that kids can play it right into their retirement years. It is a lifelong social game that truly provides sportsmanship, camaraderie and fun.

In the 2010-2011 season over 100,000 kids in over 15 cities took part in this school program. This year with a launch of 14 additional cities we anticipate even higher numbers reaching even more communities.

Our long-term goal is to provide the same availability to US schools as we are to the Canadian schools. Although we won't be able to do that over night with a corporate sponsor it will come soon. There has certainly been no shortage of demand from US schools and curling associations!

What is so great about this in-school program? We can teach over 200 students per school each day. We can adapt the program for children with disabilities or classes of all ages and in most cases we can bring the program to the school for less than $1 per student. It doesn't stop there we can also bring the program to community centers, senior homes and more.

Get more information on our program at rocksandrings.com and find out why kids everywhere are yelling "hurry hard"!

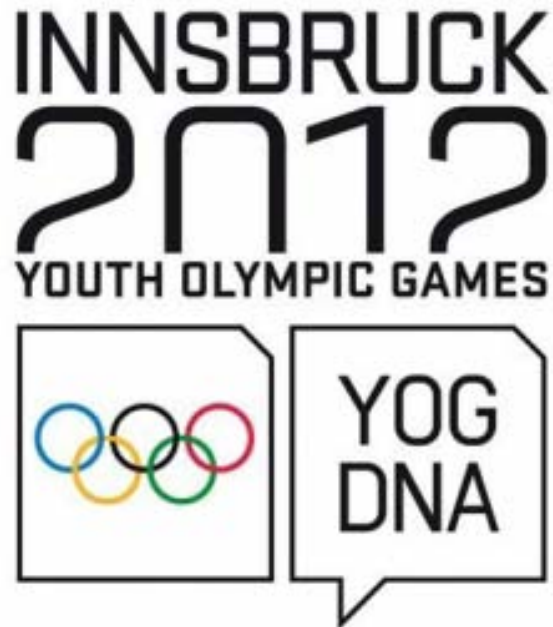

Curling Featured At Youth Olympic Games

By Terry Kolesar, USA Curling

The inaugural Winter Youth Olympic Games featuring curling is set to take place in 2012. The Youth Olympic Games are a sporting event for young people, balancing sport, culture and education. The vision of the Youth Olympic Games is to inspire young people around the world to participate in sport and adopt and live by the Olympic values. Young athletes will compete in high-level competitions as well as participate in a culture and education program focused on five themes: Olympism and Olympic values, skills development, well-being and healthy lifestyle, social responsibility, and expression through digital media.

Two curling competitions will be contested during the event, which will take place Jan. 13-22, 2012, in Innsbruck, Austria. The first event will be a mixed event (two boys, two girls) with the nations competing against one another with 16 countries competing in total. The second part is an international mixed doubles teams where athletes will be placed on teams with athletes from other countries.

Athletes for this event must meet a specific age criteria. In order to be eligible to compete, athletes must have been born between Jan. 1, 1994, and Dec. 31, 1995. Nations qualify teams for the YOG based on a formal World Curling Federation qualification process.

The U.S. will hold its playdown to select its team on Nov. 18-21 at the Grafton Curling Club in Grafton, N.D.

The first ever Summer Youth Olympic Games took place in 2010 in Singapore. The 2012 winter event in Austria will be the first winter version. Each edition (summer, winter) will follow the traditional Olympic cycle of every four years.
